

HOW IT WORKS:

Answer each question, then pull your answers together into a paragraph of up to 1000 characters for your personal statement.

Writing about a case

Go to the BBC's Law in Action series list and select an episode of interest: <https://www.bbc.co.uk/programmes/b006tgy1>

OR go to the the Law Society Gazette: <https://www.lawgazette.co.uk/law-reports/13510.more> and find a case you are particularly interested in.

Can you summarise the most important legal issues in 1-2 sentences?

Pick out 1-2 key points which particularly interested you. Why did this topic grab your attention?

Were there any new concepts or terms which you were unfamiliar with? If so, research them online and explain them in one or two sentences.

How did the case change or alter your view of Law - were you surprised or intrigued by anything in particular?

What were the main parts of the law which were in dispute? Has the topic opened up any questions which you would like to research further at university?
